

BLACK POWDER MUZZLE LOADING

Muzzle loading is an interactive discipline that caters to the original and replica rifles, muskets, handguns and shotguns that were used during Australia's colonial days. The firearm categories are very detailed, with each having its own classes and subsections. The rifle events are shot from the offhand, cross-sticks, prone, bench rest and sometimes kneeling/sitting positions, while the shotgun events are shot around stations placed various distances from the thrower, shooting 25 to 50 clay targets overall.
